ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
55 EQUITABLE BUILDING, BOSTON, Jan. 19, 1881.

Hon. CHARLES J. NOYES, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir,—I have the honor to present herewith my official Report for the year ending this day.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

GEO. MARSTON.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S OFFICE, Jan. 19, 1881.

To the Honorable the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

I HAVE the honor to submit to the Legislature my official report for the year ending this day, as follows:—

The whole number of cases in the courts which have required my personal attention or supervision is 197, and they are thus classified:—

Indictments for murder	22
Exceptions and reports in criminal cases	63
Informations upon relation of public officers	89
Informations upon relation of private persons	11
Miscellaneous	12
	197

I have attended to the conduct and disposition of the following cases, in which the defendants were charged with murder:—

IN THE COUNTY OF BARNSTABLE.

A special session of the Supreme Judicial Court was held at Barnstable, Jan. 29, 1880, by Justice Morton, for the arraignment of Charles F. Freeman, indicted for the murder of Edith B. Freeman. He was represented by Hon. Alonzo W. Boardman and Charles Allen Taber, Esq., as counsel, who suggested that he was so insane as to be unfit to plead. Upon due inquiry by the Court it was so found; and he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff, and was afterwards removed by warrant of the Governor to the Lunatic Hospital in Danvers; and, at the May term of the Supreme Judicial Court at Barnstable, he was brought in and committed to that hospital by order of the Court; and he is still detained there, and his condition has not materially changed.

IN THE COUNTY OF HAMPDEN.

A special session of the Supreme Judicial Court was held at Springfield, Feb. 14, for the arraignment of John Kemmler, against whom three indictments were pending for the murder of his three children. A motion was made by his counsel, E. B. Maynard, Esq., for inquiry into his condition of mind; and he was found by the Court to be so insane as to be unfit to plead to the indictment, and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff. He was afterwards committed to the Lunatic Hospital at Worcester, where he remains without any improvement.

I respectfully suggest that jurisdiction be given to a judge of the Supreme Judicial Court, when sitting for an arraignment under Stat. 1869, Chap. 433, Sect. 2, to commit to a lunatic hospital when occasion may require, as if holding a term of the court.

IN THE COUNTY OF PLYMOUTH.

An indictment against Henry J. Gunn for the murder of Justin L. Gunn by beating. He was arraigned Feb. 19, and Messrs. W. B. Gale and Charles G. Davis, Esqs., were assigned as his counsel. His trial commenced May 18 before Justices Ames and Morton, and terminated May 20 in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. He was thereupon sentenced to the State Prison for life.

This case was prepared for trial by Hon. Asa French, District-Attorney, who assisted me on the trial.

IN THE COUNTY OF MIDDLESEX.

An indictment against Stearns Kendall Abbott for the murder of Maria L. Crue by shooting. The defendant was arraigned before Justice Endicott on the twenty-ninth day of April, and Messrs. George Stevens and William H. Bent were assigned as his counsel.

He was tried before Justices Ames and Lord, commencing Dec. 14, and terminating, in a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree, Dec. 18.

Some exceptions are pending in this case, which will soon be argued.

An indictment against Catharine Driscoll for the murder of Mary Credan by blows. The defendant was arraigned before Justice Ames on the twentieth day of October, and Messrs. Charles R. Train and Thomas J. Flatley were assigned as her counsel. She was tried before Justices Ames and Lord, commencing Dec. 20, and terminating, in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter, Dec. 24. She was sentenced to imprisonment in the house of correction for five years.

These cases had been carefully prepared by Hon. W. B. Stevens, District-Attorney, who assisted me on the trial of them.

Mortimer Johnson, indicted for murder, is still at large, and the hope of re-arresting him is slight. Sarah A. Johnson, jointly indicted with him, has been released on her own recognizance, as the evidence was not of a character to make it expedient to put her upon trial without trying Mortimer Johnson at the same time. She is within reach whenever her attendance may be required.

An indictment against Homer Wellington for the murder of Morris B. Wellington by poisoning. He was arraigned before Justice Ames on the twentieth day of October, and pleaded not guilty, and Messrs. William B. Gale and E. H. Jose were assigned as his counsel. A term of the Supreme Judicial Court, by continuance, was held Dec. 27 by Justices Lord and Soule, and jurors were in attendance for his trial. It was then discovered that there was an error in the indictment which required that a new indictment should be found, and the prosecution stands continued for the further action of the Grand Jury in February.

An indictment against Charles F. Williams for the murder of Walter Smith by shooting. He was arraigned before Justices Lord and Soule on the twenty-seventh day of December, and pleaded not guilty, and Messrs. Theodore H. Sweetser and O. S. Knapp were assigned as his counsel.

IN THE COUNTY OF FRANKLIN.

An indictment against Nelson Jarvis Phelps for the murder of Sarah Ada Grover alias Sarah Ada Phelps. He was arraigned before Justice Morton on the seventh day of December, and pleaded not guilty, and Messrs. Austin De Wolf and Charles G. Delano were assigned as his counsel.

A trial will be had on the three cases last named as soon as the engagements of the Court will allow.

IN THE COUNTY OF HAMPSHIRE.

An indictment against Benjamin Eastman for the murder of Parley Hutchins by beating and stabbing. He was arraigned Sept. 21 before Justice Soule, and pleaded not guilty, and E. H. Lathrop and George Kress were assigned as his counsel. A term of the Supreme Judicial Court by continuance was held Dec. 7 by Justices Colt and Morton, and jurors were in attendance for his trial. In opposition to my motion for the empanelling of a jury, the counsel for the prisoner suggested that he was insane and unfit to be put upon trial, and prayed the Court to make due inquiry thereof. After hearing of evidence the Court determined that Eastman was not in a condition of mind to be tried, and ordered his commitment to the Lunatic Hospital at Worcester.

IN THE COUNTY OF SUFFOLK.

The exceptions which were pending at the date of my last report in the case of Saro Chiavaro, accessory before the fact to the murder of Joseph F. Frye, have been argued and overruled, and he has been sentenced to the State Prison for life.

There are still pending the following indictments for murder, on which the defendants have not been arraigned:—

Frank Adams and Amos T. Adams for the murder of George H. Partridge; and Charline Clark Williams Gilmore Daniels for the murder of Maud Louise Daniels, in the county of Norfolk.

David Mooney (with several other names) for the murder of Edmund La Voie alias Frenchy Marshall, in the county of Suffolk.

By a decision of the Supreme Judicial Court in the case of the Commonwealth v. Peter Harrington in the county of Bristol, the provisions of the Act of 1880, Chap. 221, in respect to form of complaints, and incidentally of sentences, have been held to be unconstitutional. If this chapter is not repealed, it should be carefully revised and amended.

By a resolve of the last Legislature, Chap. 50, I was instructed to commence legal proceedings against the Boston and Albany Railroad Company for the enforcement of its contracts concerning the purchase and filling of flats at South Boston, unless settlement should be made within a time named in the resolve, which expired Oct. 15. No such settlement was made; and I commenced an action at law, returnable in the Superior Court for the county of Suffolk, at the January term, 1881, to recover the amount of money remaining due; to wit, the sum of $167,500.18, stated as follows:—

Amount due under the contract Oct. 1, 1876	$435,600 00
Interest to April 3, 1878	39,421 80
	$475,021 80
Deduct payment April 3, 1878	330,000 00
	$145,021 80
Interest to Dec. 3, 1880	22,478 38
	$167,500 18

I have also filed a bill in equity in the Supreme Judicial Court in the county of Suffolk, to secure the specific performance of the things agreed to be done by the Boston and Albany Railroad Company in relation to filling the flats and constructing sea-walls, and to recover damages for the long delay which has occurred.

These proceedings are now pending. As it is possible that some adjustment may be reached in such a manner as to secure all that justice to the Commonwealth requires without actual trial, I respectfully suggest that the power given to the Harbor and Land Commissioners to make settlement, with the approval of the Governor and Council, within six months after the passage of the Resolve of 1880, be continued in them, so that they may be authorized to direct a disposition of these suits if satisfactory terms can be agreed at any time hereafter.

The proceeding for the protection of Green-harbor River is still pending, and will come to argument in a few days. No part of the sum appropriated by Resolve of 1880, Chap. 42, has yet been actually expended, though some obligations have been incurred which are a proper charge upon it.

An action has been commenced in the Superior Court for the county of Plymouth against the principal of the Normal School at Bridgewater, to recover damages for injury done to the water of a pond from which ice has been usually cut, by the drainage and sewage from the buildings used and occupied for the purposes of the school. I have appeared to defend this suit. I am informed that a petition will be presented to the Legislature calling attention to this subject, and asking for relief.

In my last report I called attention to the "great lack of uniformity in the method of taxation of costs in criminal cases, and in the scale of fees taxed and allowed in the different criminal-law districts of the Commonwealth." Further experience and reflection have confirmed my opinion that some legislation on this subject will tend "to economy of expenditure in this important branch of the public service."

The petition heretofore commenced by Joshua B. Smith, under the Act of 1879, Chap. 255, "to provide a remedy for persons having claims against the Commonwealth," has been disposed of by an entry of neither party. A petition of David Pulsifer, claiming $5,207.32 as a balance due him for services in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, from 1853 to 1861, has been brought, and is now pending in the Superior Court for the county of Suffolk, which I have appeared to defend.

A bill in equity has been filed in the Circuit Court of the United States for the First Circuit by William F. Graham against the Boston, Hartford, and Erie Railroad Company and others, in which Charles Endicott, until now Treasurer and Receiver-General of the Commonwealth, is made a defendant. I have appeared for that officer, to protect him and the Commonwealth, and have filed a demurrer to the bill, as have also other parties defendant. If the demurrers should be overruled, a trial upon the merits might seriously affect the large interest of the Commonwealth in the New York and New England Railroad Company.

The number of applications for requisitions upon the governors of other States for the extradition and return of fugitives from the justice of this State, during the year, is 28, of which 27 were granted.

The number of requisitions from the governors of other States upon the Governor of this Commonwealth has been 11, of which all were complied with.

The expense incurred by the Commonwealth for the extradition and return of fugitives from justice during the year has been $911.37.

There has been collected, through this office, the sum of $10,476.40 upon claims due the Commonwealth, of which $6,328.98 has been paid over to the Treasurer and Receiver-General, and the balance, $4,147.42, to the warden of the State Prison, to whom the same was properly payable.

Further details of the service of this office appear in the subjoined tables.

Frederick H. Gillett, Esq., still continues in the office of Assistant Attorney-General.

GEO. MARSTON, Attorney-General.
